Unraveling Racism Training I - Core

Tuesday & Wednesday, June 26-27, 2018

8:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Unitarian Universalist Congregation at Shelter Rock
48 Shelter Rock Rd., Social Hall
Manhasset, NY 11030

Racism is an everyday reality in our lives but very difficult to deal with.

The two-day Unraveling Racism Training I – Core workshop will expand your knowledge and understanding of this pervasive issue and empower you to become an effective agent of change.

Through interactive exercises, small group discussions and self exploration, this workshop:

- Provides a framework and common language for genuine dialogue about racism.
- Analyzes the personal, institutional and cultural manifestations of racism, with attention to “historical” and “contemporary” racism in the U.S.
- Clarifies the systemic linkages between racism and other forms of oppression.
- Offers ideas and skills that you can use immediately in your work and personal life.

Cost: $375 per person.

Breakfast and Lunch will be provided.

Register online for Unraveling Racism Training I Core at www.eraseracismny.org or call Sherley Cherenfant at 516-921-4863 ext. 17 for additional information.

People are talking about ERASE Racism's Unraveling Racism Training...

- Michael E. White, Former Executive Director-Long Island Regional Planning Board.
“Powerful, effective, moving, unforgettable. Take this training—you will wish you had done so years ago and know you have gained so much for at least having done so now. Thank you, ERASE Racism.”
- Dianne Rulnick, Former Chair of the Southampton Anti-Bias Taskforce.
“If we only work in our small boxes without hearing and learning from others our chance of success will be diminished. Essential to this work is deepening our understanding of what racism is and what the effects of racism are on our communities. Bringing ERASE Racism's Unraveling Racism Training to the East End was central to this collaboration”
- Shannon Boyle, LMSW, Executive Director at New Ground, Inc. in Hempstead.
“This extremely experiential interactive training was the most insightful training I have attended, creating a comfortable environment to discuss one of the most uncomfortable topics in the world today. I am amazed how much I learned about myself.”
- Phyllis Rice, an African American retired mental health professional.
“Trainers are most knowledgeable and dynamic. Training was excellent. Communication between trainers and participants was freewheeling, positive and it was truly a reality check. It was thought provoking and reaffirming.”
- Cecilia Escamilla, a Latina Public School Social Worker.
“It was a life-changing event. After the training, I was able to speak about racism in a different way. The interactive activities, small group discussions and self-exploration activities clarified how internalized and institutionalized racism can be dismantled. I literally became a different person. I went back to my job and spoke to my supervisor about hiring more people of color, but I also talked to friends, co-workers, and clients about our internalized racism and what to do about it.”
- Ms. Kate Rossi, when president and Chief Operating Officer, Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage.
“Every organization should expose their team to this program. Together we will make a difference.”
- Dr. Regina White, when Educational Director of Holocaust Memorial and Tolerance Center of Nassau County.
“Outstanding training, one of the best I have participated in. An excellent learning experience about racism and a real awakening”
- Blanka Monasterio-Redelik, M.B.A President & Founder at Port Washington Food Allergy Awareness Coalition.
“Courage is the most powerful of all virtues which allows us to step out of our comfort zone to face, advocate, and fight for what we believe is right and rightful for ourselves and others.”
- Joan Skelly – Retired, School Administrator.
“Unraveling Racism Training reconfirms what many of us know about differences and similarities and at the same time, the activities and information provide new insight and make a tremendous impression. I can't think of another professional development experience in terms of content and skills that I would recommend so highly to anyone who thinks they've heard it all and for whom this is a first experience with the topic.”
